

Career Day T-shirt Logo Design CONTEST

Ross Soil and Water and Ross County Farm Bureau are hosting Career Ag Day in September 2023. As a response to student interest, we're sponsoring a contest for students to design a logo for t-shirts to be distributed to all participating students at that event. The student entering the winning design will win a $25 Amazon gift certificate!

THEME

With all the career paths agriculture can offer - engineering and mechanics, all aspects of food science, crop production and livestock raising, research, conservation, forestry, animal health, and more - the logo design should reflect the theme: "the variety of careers related to agriculture."

DESIGN SPECIFICATIONS

The logo design should reflect the theme: "the variety of careers related to agriculture"

The design must fit an 8-inch x 8-inch space

The submitted design MUST be black and white. No shading is to be used.

Students may suggest t-shirt colors on the entry form, but the lettering on the shirts will be either white or black.

The best designs will be simple, bold and readable text and images

The design may be submitted as a jpeg if digital or on a single sheet of paper

The name of the winning student will be included on the final design as a by-line

Design must include SWCD and FB logos (Red Barn has camera ready SWCD and FB logos)

CONTEST RULES

One entry per student

All designs submitted become the property of Ross County Soil and Water District

The attached entry form must be submitted with the proposed design

Winner will be selected at the April Board meeting of the Ross County Soil and Water District
