

Ross Soil & Water Conservation District

Classroom Topics

WILDLIFE

- Wildlife ID with Furs, Skulls, Footprints (What's in your back yard?)
- Food Chain (Predator / Prey)
- Habitats & Biomes
- History of Wildlife in Ohio (Wildlife Timeline)

POLLINATORS

- Pollinator ID
- Migration
- Why Pollinators are important
- Pollinator Habitat

WATER QUALITY FIELD TRIP

- Stream monitoring
- Fish ID
- ID macroinvertebrates, amphibians, snakes, and other creek critters
- Indicator species for Water Quality
- Importance of Water Quality

NATURAL RESOURCE CONSERVATION

- What is a Natural Resource
- Renewable and Nonrenewable Resources
- Ways to conserve and protect Natural Resources
- Ways to get out and enjoy nature

SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION

- The Water Cycle
- Why Soil and Water are important
- Ways to conserve and protect Soil & Water
- Erosion and Runoff
- Types of erosion (runoff table)
- Erosion prevention

FARMING

- Where does our food come from?
- Crops
- Livestock practices and their importance

CAREERS IN AGRICULTURE

- Meat Science
- Animal Science

*Programs can be tailored to age group and adjusted to current classroom studies
Call 740-772-1711 and press 3 or email admin@rosscountyswcd.org*